

Steve Hilton

Artist Statement

As a geologist and science teacher by training, and a ceramic artist, I have developed an appreciation for the anomalies in the many forms of life, clay, rock, and soil covering the Earth's landscape. I am intrigued by the way plants, animals and weather influence the Earth's surface, by both erosional and depositional means. This fascination has become an integral part of my art.