

Miranda Howe

Artist Statement

I've had a long-time fascination with geologic elements- fissures, strata, dried river beds, erosion-aspects which play an important role in my work. Flip the coin and you'll notice my love of tight patterning, architectural details, textiles and mosaics. Pairing the natural with the man-made continues to strike a deep chord in me when creating my sculptural ceramic work.