

Sharon Shull

I am a retired veterinarian that dreams of animals in my sleep I began working in clay during Covid and now all of those animals of my dreams are being transformed into clay creatures. Every animal represents one that I treated while in practice. I have worked as a veterinarian in the US, Nicaragua, Ecuador and Turks and Caicos. I donate a percent of profits to animal rescue organizations.